The Detail

The Moor is a beautiful extended character detached home, occupying this delightful position on the edge of Mickleover. This property is positioned at the head of a private driveway off Station Road and occupies a stunning mature plot of over half an acre (0.529 acres with beautiful landscaped gardens with delightful views.

This beautiful character home, originally built in the 1930s, has been sympathetically extended over the years to offer around 3,600 sq ft of living accommodation. Inside, the property retains its charm with a host of original features, including exposed beams, solid oak doors, and reclaimed oak detailing, providing a warm, inviting atmosphere. The property has also been recently upgraded throughout by stylish black uPVC double glazed windows installed in 2022.

The beautiful entrance hallway leads to a delightful and most spacious sitting room with an inglenook fireplace with log burner and a feature bay window to the rear elevation with full height glass providing delightful views over the rear garden. The formal dining room offers a perfect space for entertaining and has oak built in storage cupboards and bookshelves and a bay window with window seat again with delightful views of the garden. There is a spacious dining kitchen fitted with range of quality grey panelled units with oak wood block worksurfaces with dining island. The kitchen is fitted with a range of quality integrated appliances and an Aga. The kitchen gives access to a rear hallway with access to a stylish wc, well appointed utility room and a most spacious living room with french doors leading to the rear garden.

Upstairs, five generously proportioned bedrooms offer flexible living options, with the most spacious primary bedroom quality built in wardrobes and a beautifully appointed en-suite shower room with large walk in shower, wc and dual wash hand basins with vanity unit. There are also two further bathrooms with the main family bathroom being beautifully appointed with a period style four piece suite including a feature roll-top bath and large walk in shower. There is also a study on the first floor and a stunning covered balcony with delightful views of the rear garden.

The property is approached along a private drive which leads the property's extensive gravelled driveway and mature front garden. The gravelled driveway continues to the side of the property and leads into the rear garden and a large detached garage/store.

A true feature of this stunning home is the beautiful mature south facing mature landscaped garden. This garden includes a large stone paved patio area, stepping down to an extensive lawn with well stocked planting borders, mature trees and an impressive Arctic log cabin with built in barbecue and seating for 10 people. The garden offers a delightful views over neighbouring fields and open green space and this delightful position really has to be viewed to be fully appreciated.
