The Location

Allestree is one of Derby's most sought-after residential suburbs, located approximately three miles north of the city centre. The area is well regarded for its blend of green surroundings, excellent amenities, and convenient access to major transport routes. The popular Park Farm Shopping Centre offers a wide range of everyday conveniences including supermarkets, cafés, independent shops, and services, while the nearby A38 and A50 provide fast connections to the M1 motorway and surrounding areas.

The location is ideal for professionals and families alike, being within easy reach of the University of Derby, Rolls-Royce, Royal Derby Hospital, and Toyota.

For leisure and recreation, Allestree offers an abundance of green space and sports facilities. The stunning Allestree Park and Nature Reserve is right on the doorstep, featuring woodland walks, open parkland, and an 18-hole golf course at Kedleston Golf Club just a few minutes' drive away. Residents can also enjoy Woodlands Tennis Club, Markeaton Park with its additional courts and play areas, and modern gym facilities at both Park Farm Centre and the University of Derby.

Families are particularly drawn to Allestree for its highly regarded schools, including Woodlands Secondary School and several well regarded local Primary Schools.
