haboodle

A Unique Five-Bedroom Detached Home on a Private Road in Purley, Seamlessly Blending Arts & Crafts Character with Contemporary Design, Offered Chain Free.

Tucked away on a quiet, private road, Hurstwood is a five-bedroom detached family home originally built in 1926 in the Arts and Crafts style. Thoughtfully renovated to preserve its heritage while introducing striking modern touches throughout, it is a testament to the enduring appeal of this architectural style.

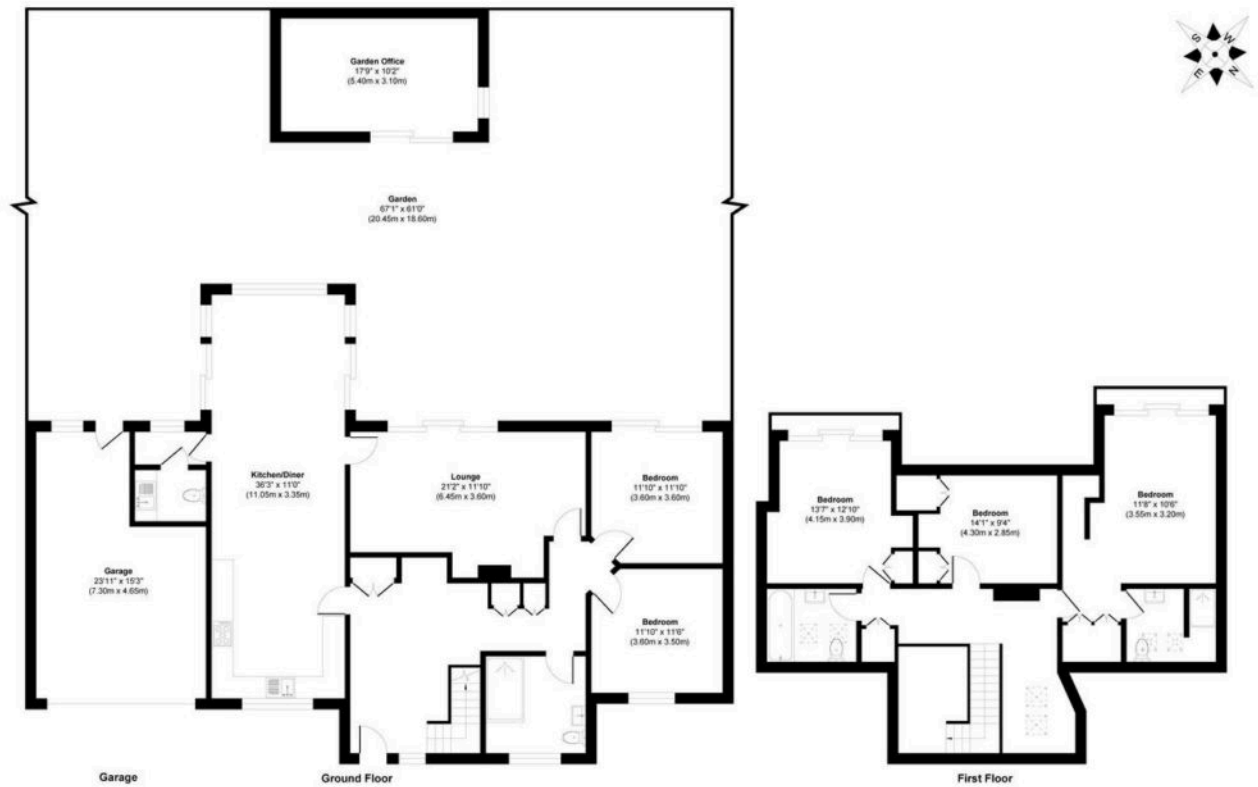

At the heart of the home is a bespoke, handmade kitchen, crafted in Dublin and fitted with Neff appliances, an Elica gas hob, and a Quooker tap. A full wall of sliding glass doors opens directly onto a rear terrace, perfectly positioned to catch the afternoon and evening sun. The tiled flooring continues through to the original-style parquet in the lounge, where panelling pays tribute to the home's 1920s roots.

The layout is highly versatile, featuring two double bedrooms on the
