Occupying a large corner plot with large garden and having 3 bedrooms, generous living & a conservatory means space for everyone! Garage & Parking!

This detached bungalow enjoys a generous corner plot and has an impressive and expansive garden to three sides perfect for any keen gardeners. There are stunning views over the bay to the Lakeland Fells and Warton Crag. The double glazed front door opens to a wide, welcoming hallway. Walnut wood effect flooring is both appealing and functional for a busy home.

The living room is spacious and light with natural light flowing from both the large sliding conservatory doors and the side window. There is a focal fireplace and the room opens to the rear to a large, bright conservatory. The views over the large rear garden are idyllic and there are views over Morecambe Bay, towards the Lakeland Fells and Warton Crag. The conservatory offers space to dine although in the past one of the three bedrooms has also been used as a formal dining room. The kitchen has a generous range of cabinets in a warm cherry wood tone. These are complemented by the dark, granite work top. The kitchen enjoys integrated appliances including a Bosch hob, Belling double oven, Bosch extractor hood, Bosch Fridge, Bosch Freezer and integrated Becko washing machine. There is plumbing and space for a dish washer. The back door opens to the garden.

There are three double bedrooms. The master bedroom enjoys built in wardrobes. The third bedroom is used as an office. The bungalow has a modern shower room with spacious corner shower enclosure and a hand basin. There is also a separate WC and hand basin. The bungalow has benefits from gas central heating and all radiators have thermostatic valves.

Externally the property has a garage with electricity and water supplies. Block paved driveway.
