Get to know the property

Nestled on Bare Avenue in the charming coastal town of Morecambe in Bare Village, this delightful Edwardian terraced house, built in 1935, offers a perfect blend of period charm and modern family living. With three well-proportioned bedrooms, this property is ideal for families seeking a comfortable and inviting home.

As you step inside, you will be greeted by a warm and welcoming atmosphere, with original character features, carpeted and original wood flooring. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the dining room, which seamlessly connects to the galley kitchen, creating a perfect space for family meals and entertaining guests. The period features throughout the property add a touch of character and nostalgia, making it a truly special place to call home.

Located in a quaint village setting, this property is just a stone's throw away from the seafront, allowing for leisurely strolls along the coast and the enjoyment of the beautiful Morecambe Bay. The surrounding area offers a friendly community vibe, with local amenities and schools within easy reach, making it an ideal location for families.

This terraced house is not just a property; it is a home filled with potential and warmth, waiting for the next family to create lasting memories. If you are looking for a characterful residence in a picturesque location, this home on Bare Avenue is certainly worth considering.
