47B Alexandra Road, Mutley, PL4 7EF

Asking price £105,000

This charming 1-bedroom flat, located in a prime area near the city centre, offers the perfect blend of modern comfort and historical character. Situated within a Victorian property, the flat boasts period features such as intricate mouldings, tall windows, and possibly original fireplaces, which give the space a distinctive, classical appeal.

In addition to its character, the property benefits from practical features like double glazing, helping to reduce energy costs and noise while maintaining a comfortable living environment. Off-road parking is available, a particularly valuable amenity in a city-centre location, providing convenience and peace of mind for vehicle owners.

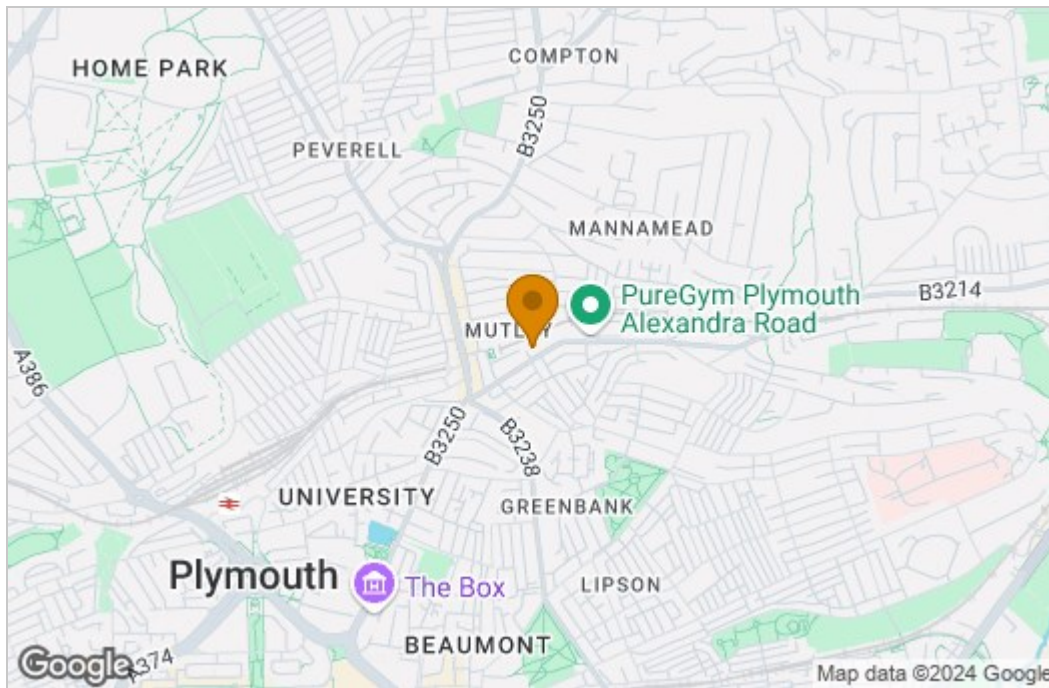

The flat is being sold with no onward chain, streamlining the buying process and making it an excellent choice for those eager to settle in quickly. Its proximity to the city centre ensures easy access to local amenities, cultural hotspots, and transport links, making it ideal for professionals, couples, or anyone looking to enjoy city living in a stylish, character-filled home.
