SHARE OF FREEHOLD. Located on Coronation Road, Southville, this home is opposite the footbridges that lead over the river into Wapping Wharf, an area which has rapidly become one of Bristol's most iconic and popular settings for living, eating and socialising.

Passing through your own private gate and courtyard you are welcomed into this delightful home via the entrance hall. To the right you find the spacious bedroom, this room profits from a built in storage cupboard and views of the rear courtyard garden.

To the left is the shower room, fully tiled three piece suite with a Victorian style basin, hinting at this properties history and a walk in shower, complete with handy niche for storing all your washroom needs.

Following on from the bathroom is another useful storage cupboard, the current owners storing both a washing machine and tumble-dryer, hidden nicely behind a classic four paneled door.

After passing even more storage space within the hallway (currently housing a chest of drawers) we find ourselves in the heart of this home.

The open plan living area (24'7" x 16'11") delivers all you would expect in modern living whilst still showcasing the key features of a period property, the bay window allowing natural light into the room whilst also creating added floor space for furniture, plants, decorations or otherwise. This significant space has ample room to play with and can be configured to suit your needs, for dining, lounging, hosting or even working from home. The metro-tiled kitchen completes this space, with electric fan oven and 4 ring ceramic hob, opening out into the living area, making it ideal for hosting friends and family followed by a short walk into all the delights Bristol have to offer.

Externally this property profits from two gardens, a courtyard to the rear, perfect for relaxing after a busy day and a stoned front garden to the front with small trees and shrubs.
