

26 Regent Street, Cowley, Oxford, Oxfordshire, OX4 1QX

Welcome to this impressive three-story property located on Regent Street. With six large bedrooms, this residence offers ample space for a group of occupants seeking a comfortable and spacious living environment. Whether you're students or professionals, this property provides a versatile and inviting home.

Spanning across three floors, this property offers a well-designed layout that maximizes both privacy and communal living. The open-plan kitchen and living area on the ground floor provide a spacious and sociable environment. The kitchen is fully equipped, allowing you to prepare meals with ease while engaging in conversation with friends or housemates. The living area offers a relaxing space for entertaining, ensuring that you can unwind after a long day.

The property features one bathroom and one en suite, providing convenience and flexibility for its occupants. Whether you prefer a private bathing experience or don't mind sharing, this property caters to your needs.

Additionally, this residence offers a private garden, where you can enjoy outdoor activities, host barbecues, or simply bask in the tranquility of your own outdoor space. Permit parking is available, ensuring that you and your guests can easily find a parking spot nearby, adding to the convenience and accessibility of the property.

- 6 Bedrooms
- 1 Receptions
- 2 Bathrooms
- House
- Furnished Property

£3,600 PCM

