Shirkla, Shawcliffe Lane, Great Harwood

Constructed in 1968 and then extended by the current owner's family, set in an enviable half acre plot surrounded by open fields with stunning views, Shirkla is an individual property with huge further potential that has been lovingly maintained throughout.

The property is surrounded by gardens to all sides and borders open fields. It benefits from a large detached garage and a driveway with ample parking area and turning space. The internal accommodation comprises an L-shaped entrance hallway, large open flowing living space comprising a living area with fireplace which opens to a lounge with French doors onto a raised decked patio. An extended dining kitchen provides ample space for most and benefits from a large utility room. In addition, there are 3 good double bedrooms and a 4-piece bathroom.

LOCATION: Leave Clitheroe on Pendle Road and continue to the A59 bypass, heading in the direction of Preston. At the large roundabout take the first exit and skirt around Whalley on the A671, passing through the first traffic lights and then bearing right at the second towards Great Harwood. Turn right onto Park Lane and proceed straight over the mini roundabouts onto Cliffe Lane and up onto Blackburn Old Road. Turn right onto Goldacre Lane and follow the road down onto Shawcliffe Lane. Shirkla can be found on the left-hand side.
