SITUATION

The village of Woodcote, which lies just off the Reading to Oxford Road, is situated in an area of 'Outstanding Natural Beauty' surrounded by the scenic countryside of the Chilterns, with extensive beech woodlands and undulating fields. The village is some 500' (160 metres) above sea level and there are glorious far-reaching views from several parts of the village. Originally a small community based on farming and the countryside, Woodcote has grown substantially, especially during the 1960s and 1970s, is now a thriving village with a good range of local amenities including supermarket, nursery/garden centre, two public houses, modern health centre and excellent education facilities with two toddler playgroups, primary and secondary schools.

In addition to having well revered local state primary and secondary schooling, the area is also extremely well served by an excellent range of private schooling, of particular note; Cranford House School, The Oratory Preparatory School, Moulsoford Preparatory School, St Andrews Preparatory School, The Oratory School, Pangbourne College, Brockhurst & Marlston House, Downe House, Rupert House School, Shiplake College, The Abbey School, Bradfield College, The Manor Preparatory School, Abingdon School, Abingdon Preparatory School, Radley College, and St Helen & St Katharine.

Near the centre of the village is the Parish Church, which was rebuilt in 1846 in a Norman style on the site of the original Norman structure, with a few traces of original walling still surviving. Woodcote House, an historic country mansion built in the 1730s, now forms part of the Oratory School, standing in extensive park like grounds east of the main village. A variety of local activities appealing to young and old are based in the Village Hall and nearby Community Centre and which are well publicised in the monthly village newspaper, the Woodcote Correspondent, circulated to all local residents.

Woodcote has good road communications with easy access for Reading, Henley, Oxford and the M40 and M4 networks. For rail commuters there are mainline stations locally at Pangbourne and Goring on Thames, as well as Reading, all providing fast services up to London (Paddington).

Crossrail services have commenced from Reading which together with the electrifying of the line has significantly improved travelling times to Paddington and central London destinations.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Pavilion House sits opposite the village pavilion in a prime position within Woodcote. Built in 2010, it benefits from modern well appointed highly efficient accommodation. Entrance is into a lovely hallway with stair access. The hallway extends through the house and incorporates a large cupboard which goes under the stairs. The sitting room has a lovely bay window overlooking the front and there is a wood burner. Next door is the family room and then the cloakroom. At the back of the house is the large kitchen breakfast room with island, in-built larder and bi-fold doors overlooking the garden, giving a wonderful "inside outside" feel. There is a separate utility room with back door. Upstairs is a large landing area with airing cupboard and loft room access. A drop down wooden ladder takes you up to this generous loft space with eaves storage. A permanent staircase up to this room could be easily built, subject to building regulations. The main bedroom overlooks the back of the house and is vaulted offering a lovely light and spacious room. It also benefits from having an ensuite shower room. There are 3 further double bedrooms and a separate bathroom making it a wonderful family home.

GARDENS & GROUNDS

The property is approached through a five bar gate and onto the gravelled driveway. Hedging at the front offers privacy and a low fence separates next door. A gate on the right hand side takes you through to the rear garden. There is a shed tucked away in the corner and then the garden opens up offering a lovely west facing aspect. A terrace coming off the kitchen offers a wonderful opportunity for al fresco dining. At the bottom of the garden is a further seating area. Mainly laid to lawn, the garden is part fenced and part walled with pretty borders, shrubs and trees.
