SITUATION

Aldworth is a small and much prized rural village lying high up on the Berkshire Downs approximately 600ft above sea level, close to the ancient Ridgeway Path and in a designated "Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty". The village is historically linked to agriculture and farming and this way of life still continues today thus retaining its unspoilt charm and character with there having been little intrusive development.

There are two well-respected local Inns namely "The Bell" in the village square and the thatched "Four Points" as well as a notable church St Mary's, which dates from the 12th century and is well worth visiting to see the 14th century monuments to the De La Beche family, known as the Aldworth Giants. There is a cricket field by the newly built Village Hall, the latter providing numerous social and community activities. The well regarded Casey Fields Farm Shop & Café is within 2 miles and offers well stocked produce, including meat, vegetables and cheeses, mostly locally sourced.

Located just off the B4009 road to Newbury and only a 10 minute drive from Streatley / Goring on Thames where there are good shopping facilities and amenities including 4 pubs, a highly regarded Bistro/Café, choice of restaurants, Boutique hotel, Doctors and Dental surgeries, a Tesco Express and mainline station providing fast commuter services up to London (Paddington) in under the hour.

The village also has good road communications for the major centres of Newbury, Reading, Oxford and the M4 motorway at Junctions 12 (Theale) or 13 (Chieveley). The A.34 at East Ilsley linking the South Coast with the Midlands is also within a short drive.

Crossrail services have commenced from Reading which together with the electrifying of the line will significantly improve travelling times to central London destinations.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Built around the 1930's with traditional brick elevations and tiled roof, Foxborough House is an original architect design property. Entrance is under a wide recessed porch, through double doors into a spacious reception hall with striking curved staircase. The hall extends through a beautiful crafted archway to the downstairs bedrooms and family bathroom. The bathroom has a claw foot slipper bath and Amtico tiles with underfloor heating. To the opposite side of the entrance hall are the reception rooms. The garden room has full length curved picture windows showcasing the stunning grounds beyond and offering a wonderful feeling of inside/outside living. A door along from this room gives direct outdoor access. The large sitting room has a fireplace with log burner and leads into the dining room. All rooms face the gardens and the dining room has doors taking you out onto the terrace. The kitchen looks across the back of the property and is a Neptune shaker style design with granite worktops. There is a separate rear lobby leading through to the utility room. The staircase then takes you up to the landing area and large dressing room with many built in wardrobes. The main bedroom suite also includes ample storage and ensuite is a large walk-in shower with Travertine tiled walls and floors with underfloor heating. An eaves cupboard provides further additional storage.

The self contained Annexe is found above the detached double garage. An external staircase on the left takes you up to "Foxborough Lodge". The Annexe has a sitting room, dining room, kitchen, double bedroom and shower room. It has multiple uses, either permanent or occasional family residence, staff accommodation or a residential letting providing a monthly income.

Foxborough House is a rare find.

OUTSIDE

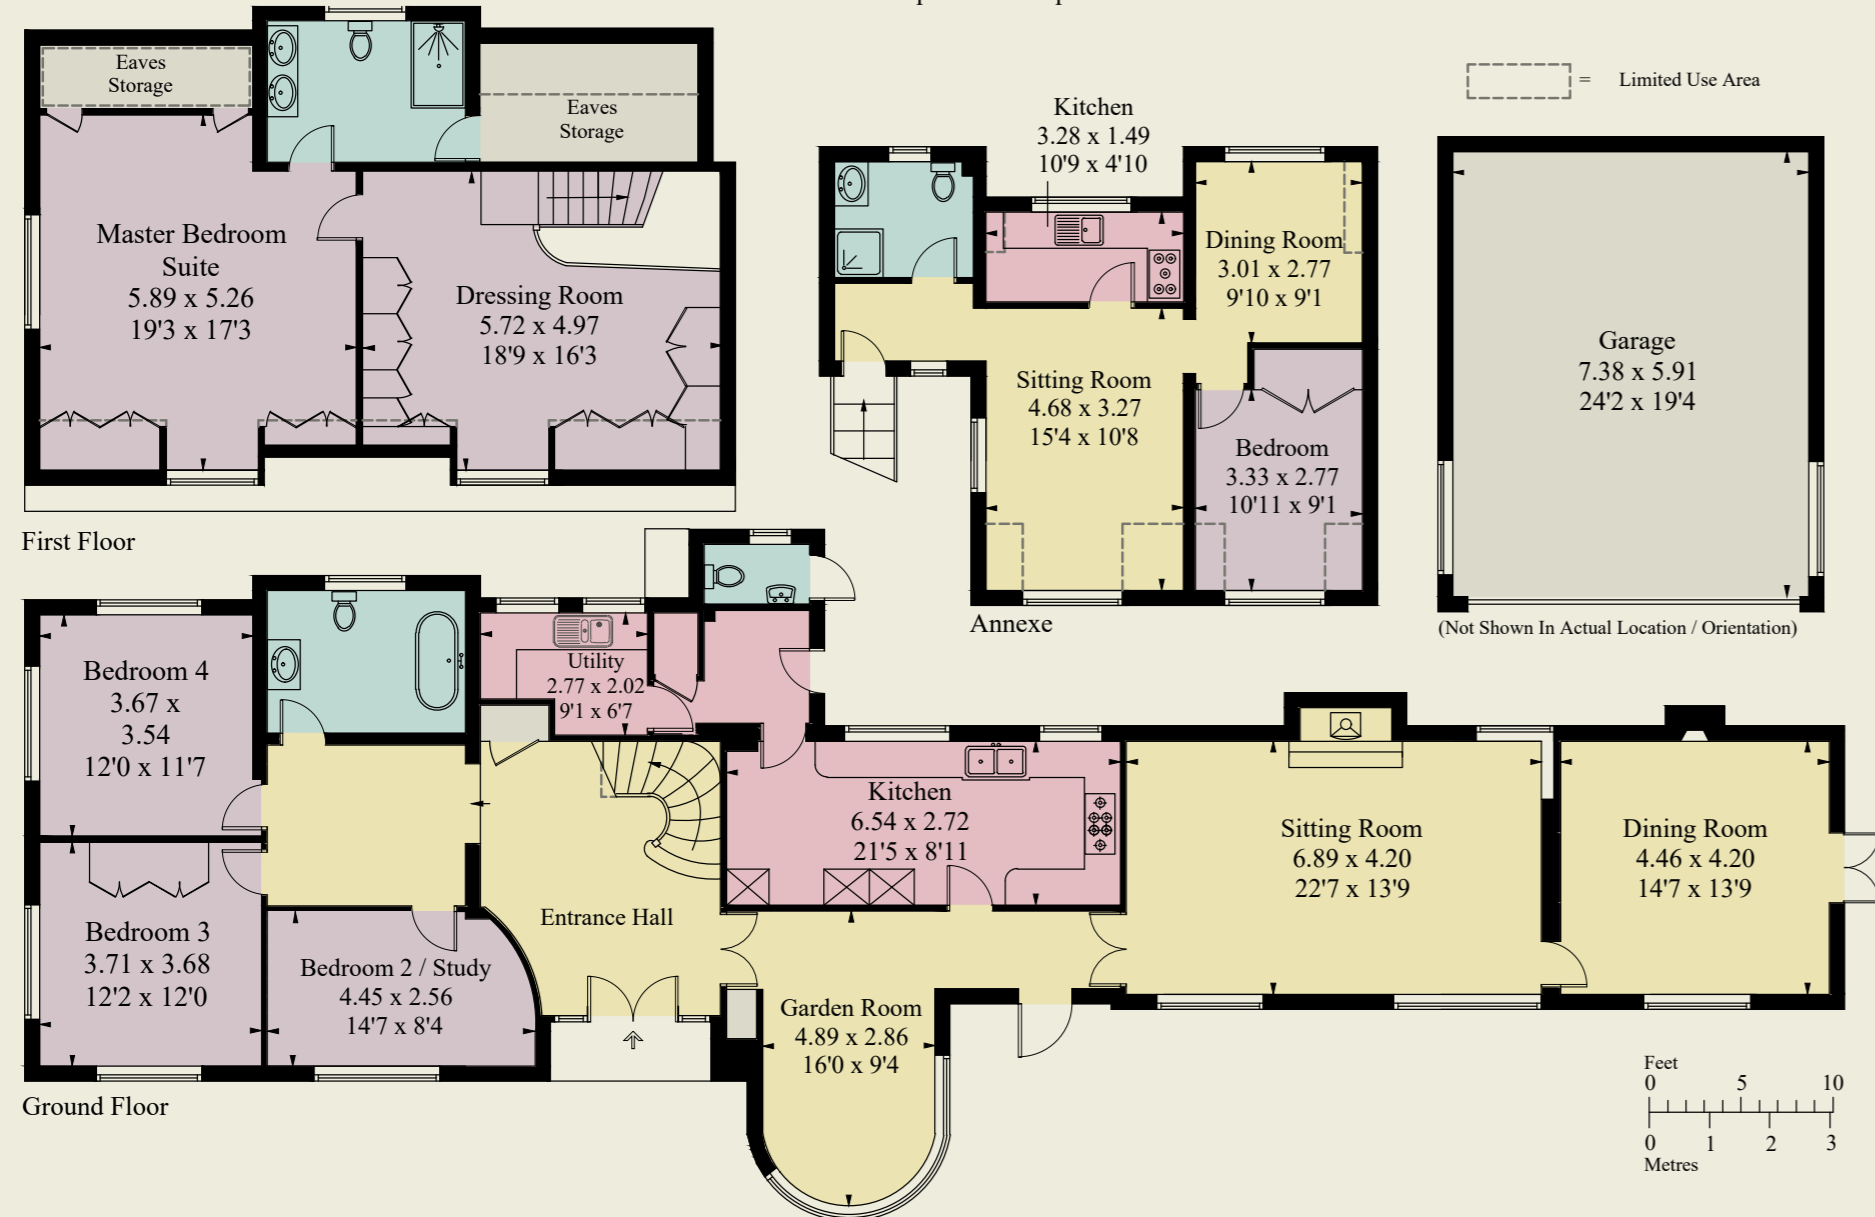

Electric gates open up into the tree lined sweeping drive which lead up to the property and detached garage with Annexe above. The garage has an electric up and over door. Occupying an elevated position, the main gardens sit at the front with a terrace running along the side and front of the house, giving a wonderful opportunity to sit and enjoy the stunning views of the grounds and Downland fields in total privacy. Bricked deep filled borders planted with shrubs and flowers, including foxgloves and alliums, sit in front of a top lawned area, then box hedging with a brick and flint wall separate a further lawn leading down to the far boundary. Within the front garden are many specimen trees amongst the lush lawn and then towards the bottom is a large pond with planting surrounding the top. Many goldfish and coy carp are immersed in the pond, providing a tranquil and calming environment. To the left of the driveway is a shaped laurel hedging and through its archway is entrance into a peaceful woodland area with large shed to the top. At the back of the house is a "gardeners outside loo" and steps then leading up to a further lawned area with its boundary adjoining Yattendon Estate land. The swimming pool is adjacent to this and sits within a decked terrace with seating and offers another opportunity for "al fresco" dining and entertaining. These established gardens and grounds have total seclusion and extend to approximately 1.77 of an acre. It's wonderful setting will be very hard to beat. An early viewing is highly recommended.
