LOCATION

The historic village of Blewbury nestling at the foot of the Berkshire Downslands close to the ancient Ridgeway Path, boasts Saxon origins and is mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086 commissioned by William the Conqueror. The scenic surrounding countryside is designated an "A.O.N.B."

On wandering through the village one can see a wealth of period houses and cottages together with ancient thatched walls, footpaths and waterways reflecting a rich architectural heritage.

Today the village is thriving supported by local amenities including a Family owned and run Nursery and Market Garden Shop, two traditional Pubs, Garage with Convenience Store, Garden Machinery Repair and Sales Shop, Primary School with linked Pre-School, a Village Hall with Recreation ground, Tennis club, Croquet club and a Riding Stables with Livery.

Blewbury has also traditionally boasted a long connection with the "Arts" and has always attracted Artists and Writers and as a consequence has flourishing Music and Drama Societies.

The Village is also known for its connection to Horse Racing with Steve Donoghue a celebrated jockey at the turn of the last Century having trained horses here and in more recent times the Derby winner Ribero was trained locally.

In the local area generally are an excellent range of Private and State Schools including ones in Oxford and Abingdon.

Nearby the expanding Town of Didcot offers comprehensive amenities including a new Shopping Centre and its Railway Station provides fast direct commuter services to Oxford Reading and up to London (Paddington). Equally road communications are excellent with the A34 a short drive away linking to the M4 at Chieveley (Junction 13).

Of special note for Internet users is that Blewbury now has the advantage of Superfast Broadband connectivity.
