New to the market is this SUBSTANTIAL PLOT totaling approx 0.83 acres on the outskirts of the well regarded village of HACKNESS with permissions to build a FOUR BEDROOM DETACHED HOME. The land is complete with a LODGE, VEGETABLE PLOTS and PONDS.

The foundations for the dwelling, are already in place for any prospective purchaser. The property once constructed will comprise; entrance hallway with stairs to the first floor and storage facilities, a generous living room, an open plan kitchen/diner, utility room and a downstairs WC. To the first floor will be a landing space with storage, a master bedroom with an en-suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a family bathroom. Suitable for multi generational living.

The proposed dwelling will be set within land of approximately 0.83 acres with off-street parking, a static caravan on-site, multiple ponds and vegetable plots.

For further details of the planning application, see reference: NYM/2020/0558/FL

The land is accessed via a private entrance off Mowthorpe Road, just on the outskirts of the ever popular village of Hackness to the North/West of Scarborough with Raincliffe Woods and Forge Valley on the doorstep providing any prospective owner with fantastic woodland and riverside walks. Ideal for dog owners.

Overall this is a superb opportunity for the right buyer to acquire a substantial plot in a much sought after, desirable location. The finished property would benefit from a superb, very secluded countryside setting with fantastic open aspect views over open fields to woodland with a little security from just one immediate neighbour and two further properties approximately one hundred yards away. The location is about 2-3 miles to East Ayton and 4-5 miles into Scarborough. A unique opportunity seldom available.
