Enjoying a beautiful coastal location within the North York Moors National Park, Sycarham Lodge is a well executed barn conversion offering spacious and extremely versatile accommodation including a self-contained annexe, ideal for multi-generational living, working from home or even as an additional source of rental income.

Nestled discretely between the Cleveland Way Coastal Path and the Cinder Track (the old railway line linking Scarborough and Whitby) this property will appeal to active nature lovers able to appreciate the extensive walking and cycling opportunities direct from the door and the abundance of local wildlife.

Set in approximately half an acre with sea views, benefitting from a private drive, large parking area and double garage with workshop area, this property offers an extremely versatile and desirable country living experience. This property is available with no onward chain.

SERVICES

Oil fired central heating is provided by two modern condensing boilers, at the rear of the property. Drainage is to a private sewage treatment plant. Mains water and electricity is connected. There is a coal bunker for the solid fuel burner in the living room and connections for the calor gas canisters used by the range cooker. The property benefits from full wood effect UPVC double glazing and the roof voids are well insulated.

OUTSIDE

The gardens extend to approximately 1/2 an acre including lawns, mature borders and a small wooded area. A private gated drive leads to a large parking area and a double garage, with separate workshop area.
