East Park Road, Scalby,

Price Guide £749,000

CPH are delighted to be presenting to the market this well presented and distinctive Grand Edwardian Style residence within the highly regarded village of Scalby.

This distinctive and imposing Edwardian residence provides sizeable living arrangements over approximately 3000 square feet. This property was once owned by Frank Laughton, brother of actor Charles Laughton. It is said that Charles would retreat here to the gardens to escape the pressures of Hollywood because of the tranquil location.

The well proportioned accommodation comprises in brief on the ground floor; entrance porch to main hallway, high specification fitted kitchen with high gloss units, centre island with light granite worktops throughout. Adjoining breakfast area, utility room and downstairs wc. Also to the ground floor lies a bay fronted snug/sitting room with a log burner, separate sitting room with dining area also with a log burner. A side entrance porch compliments the inner hallway. On the first floor you are greeted with three double bedrooms which benefit from en-suites and a further double bedroom. A luxury, spacious family bathroom has a stylish freestanding bath with walk in rain fall shower, limestone floor and wall tiles with integrated television. Outside the property has electronic gated access leading to a block-paved driveway with newly built double garage with pitched roof for extra storage.

Located within the popular village of Scalby, the property affords good access to a wealth of amenities including a Doctor's surgery, supermarket, chemist, library and and choice of popular eating and drinking establishments as well as a regular bus route into Scarborough and excellent dog walking along the nearby cinder track and Cleveland way coastal walks.

Internal viewing highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, finish and setting on offer with this immaculate family home.
