This charming semi detached house offers a perfect blend of character and space, boasting 4 bedrooms and 3 reception rooms.

The property is adorned with high ceilings, deep skirting boards, decorative cornicing, and elegant ceiling roses, adding a touch of period charm. The layout includes an inviting entrance porch and hall, leading to the first reception room, which features a double glazed bay window to the front and an attractive fireplace. Two additional reception rooms provide ample living and entertaining space, complemented by a kitchen, a cloakroom, and a large cellar for storage. Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to four generously sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from a rear garden and off street parking at the front.

Situated in a sought after location, the property offers convenient access to Bushey mainline station, Watford town centre, local schools, and leisure facilities. In need of updating, this home is offered for sale with no upper chain, presenting an excellent opportunity to personalise and modernise.
