PROPERTY SUMMARY

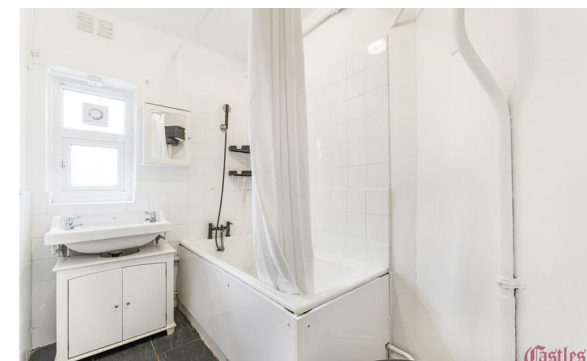

Beautifully positioned in the heart of E5, this bright top-floor one-bedroom flat offers the ideal blend of convenience, green space and community charm. Just moments from Clapton Overground Station, it provides excellent links into the City, while being a short walk from Springfield Park, the Lee Valley Regional Park and the peaceful River Lea towpaths perfect for weekend walks, cycling and outdoor leisure.

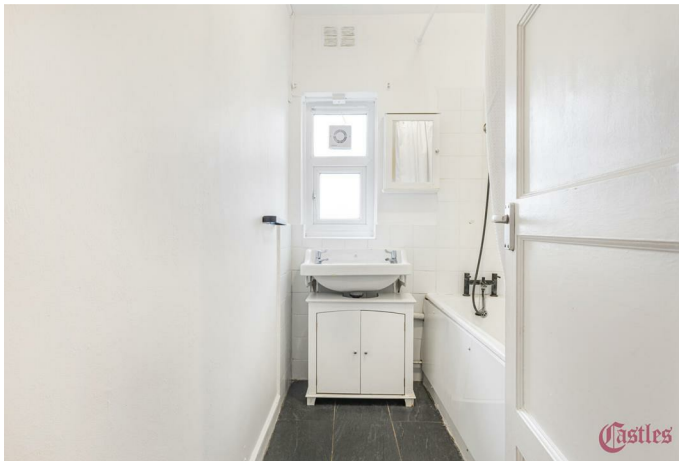

The neighbourhood is known for its lively mix of independent cafés, bakeries and local shops along Lower Clapton Road and Chatsworth Road, creating a warm, village-like feel. This combination of green space, great transport and a friendly community atmosphere makes the area especially popular with first-time buyers.

Set on the top floor of a well-maintained three-storey block, the flat offers bright and comfortable living throughout. It features a generous light-filled reception room, a well-sized double bedroom, a neatly presented bathroom and a spacious hallway. The property further benefits from gas central heating, use of a communal yard at the side of the building an ideal and practical outdoor space and is being sold chain free, offering a smooth and straightforward purchase.

Lower Clapton and nearby Stoke Newington offer a vibrant lifestyle, with an excellent selection of brunch spots, cosy pubs, artisan bakeries and weekend markets all within easy reach. With beautiful parks and scenic riverside walks close by, the area provides an appealing balance of city living and natural surroundings.

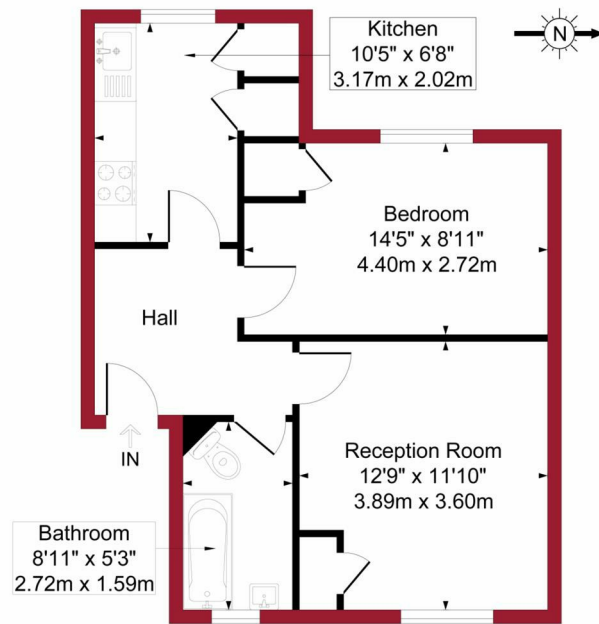

A superb opportunity for a first-time buyer in a well-located home with genuine charm and strong long-term appeal.
