DESCRIPTION

Nestled within Harris Close in Callington, this end-of-terrace family home offers three bedrooms and open plan living. The accommodation, which is mains gas centrally heated and double glazed, in brief comprises; Entrance porch, cloakroom, generous lounge opening into a kitchen/diner with modern fitted kitchen and patio doors to the rear gardens. On the first floor are 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom. Brick paved driveway and further allocated parking bay, with a gate into the rear gardens which are laid to lawn and a small patio. With extensive rural views from the rear, this home is an ideal choice for first-time buyers or as an investment opportunity with promising rental potential. Early viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the potential of this property with no onward chain.

LOCATION

Kelly Bray is located on the fringes of Callington, which offers a range of facilities including schools for all ages, supermarkets and a range of local shops, together with popular public houses including The Swingletree Inn at Kelly Bray itself. Within a short drive is Kit Hill, a countryside park with spectacular views across Plymouth to the south east and Bodmin moor to the north. The renowned Duchy College is also located at Stoke Climsland and offers a range of courses from agriculture to outdoor pursuits where students can study for a diploma, apprenticeship or a degree in a subject they enjoy. Callington caters for most other day to day needs with a senior school, medical centre, library and a varied range of shops. The ancient and former market town of Launceston (former capital of Cornwall) is only 9.7 miles and offers direct access to the A30 dual carriageway which provides good links to Truro and West Cornwall in one direction and Exeter and beyond in the opposite direction. The continental ferry port and the city of Plymouth is within 16 miles.
