

Port Close, Bearsted, Maidstone, , ME14 4PX Offers In Excess Of £625,000

This beautifully extended and refurbished four/five-bedroom detached residence is situated in the popular Bearsted Park development, within the catchment area for sought-after schools, including St. John's Junior School and SST Secondary.

As you approach the property, you'll find a generously sized resin driveway that offers ample parking for three vehicles. Step through the front door into an inviting entrance hall that leads to the sitting area, featuring a built-in media wall. This area opens up to an impressive and expansive kitchen-dining space, adorned with premium finishes, including Quartz work surfaces and high-end appliances such as a Neff self-cleaning oven and a microwave/oven. The fabulous 5-meter-long premium Origin bi-fold doors, equipped with integrated magnetic blinds, slide open to the rear garden, while electric rain sensor Velux windows add to the ambiance. Fully plumbed underfloor heating throughout the ground floor provides a luxurious feel while remaining efficient to run. Completing the ground floor is a fifth bedroom or study, complete with a utility cupboard, and a convenient W.C. Upstairs, you will find three generous double bedrooms and one spacious single bedroom. The principal benefits from a modern en-suite shower room and can accommodate a full wall of wardrobes. The remaining three bedrooms share the use of a contemporary bathroom.

Externally, the rear garden features half artificial lawn for low maintenance and half finished in resin, providing ample seating areas ideal for entertaining family and friends. A 24-foot shed offers generous storage, while the outbuilding serves as a perfect multifunctional space, suitable for use as an office or gym, complete with power and lighting. The attractive dusk-to-dawn outside lighting creates a stunning effect in the evenings, and the expansive revenue-generating solar panels on the roof provide a boost to annual electricity savings. Tenure: Freehold. Council Tax Band: E. EPC rating: C.
