Charming Grade II Listed Property

Set in an elevated position in a pleasant lane, this rarely available picturesque Grade II listed end-of-terrace is situated in the heart of the historic village of Aylesford, renowned for its variety of period homes. Boasting original windows, an attractive frontage, and a high roof line, the property offers excellent potential to extend into the loft, subject to the necessary planning permission, which has previously been granted to neighbouring properties.

Rich in character and period features, the home has been thoughtfully enhanced over recent years. A log burner was installed in the living room in 2018, the roof was retiled and felted that same year, and the contemporary bathroom was refurbished in 2024.

The accommodation is spacious and well laid out, comprising: entrance hall, cosy living room with log burner, separate dining room, modern kitchen and bathroom, and a useful utility area to the rear on the ground floor. A basement on the lower ground floor offers additional versatile space. The first floor provides three bedrooms, a landing, and a separate WC.

Outside, the property benefits from double hardwood gates leading to off-road parking, a neatly maintained front garden, and a delightful enclosed rear garden extending to approximately 48'.

The location is ideal for Aylesford School, the rail station, local shops, riverside walks, and a range of traditional pubs and restaurants making this a rare opportunity to acquire a truly special home in one of Kent's historic villages.

For those interested in exploring the property further, a Matterport tour is available, allowing potential buyers to experience the layout and features of the home from the comfort of their own space. This innovative tool provides a comprehensive view of the property, ensuring that you can appreciate its full potential before arranging a visit.
