"This lovely home really is just right! Tucked away on a quiet road just a short walk from a park, hair salon, and the welcoming Greenbank pub, this property offers the perfect blend of community and convenience. Just moments from the cafés, independent shops and train station on St Marks Road, this home also enjoys easy access to the cycle path, with a convenient bike shelter in the front garden. Internally the desirable layout is perfect - the recently upgraded large kitchen diner opens onto the generous garden via French doors and the bay-fronted lounge is bright and sunny. Upstairs, both bedrooms show off charming feature fireplaces that add real character, alongside a well-presented bathroom. All you need to do is bring your furniture! Please get in touch to have a look inside.
