Property Features

Located within a hidden private courtyard within the heart of Broadwater, this four bedroom detached residence is ideally situated for access to local shops, schools and amenities. The home has only had two owners since new (1989) and offers both spacious and well presented accommodation throughout. Benefits include the home having double glazed windows, gas central heating, feature open plan kitchen/dining room, West facing double glazed conservatory, principle bedroom with new en-suite shower room in 2015, secluded and West facing rear garden, ground floor cloakroom and in our opinion with internal viewing considered essential to fully appreciate the overall size, condition and location of this home.
