This four bedroom detached bungalow offers both spacious and versatile accommodation forming part of a secluded cul-de-sac in the sought after catchment area of Offington. Not only does the home offer great sized accommodation throughout but also has extensive grounds to the front and rear offering scope for further extension and ample off street parking. Benefits include the home having double glazed windows, gas central heating, fitted kitchen, re-fitted shower room and separate re-fitted bathroom, secluded and large rear garden and in our opinion internal viewing is essential to fully appreciate the overall size and location of this residence.
