The Old Post Office...

This charming property, known as the Old Post Office Holton, presents a wonderful opportunity for renovation and modernisation. Set in a picturesque red brick Georgian building, this property boasts a driveway for up to three cars and a beautifully private, mature rear garden.

Stepping into this historic home, you are greeted by the original cottage brimming with character and unique features. The entrance is through the old post office rooms, complete with a charming post box by the front door. These rooms have been tastefully updated to create a spacious entrance hall or study, leading to a generously sized room currently utilized as a music room. The heart of the home lies in the expansive kitchen breakfast room, which leads to a cosy dining room with a fireplace, a lobby, a dual-aspect lounge with another fireplace and wood burner, and a garden room with access to the rear sanctuary.

Continuing on the ground floor, you'll find a lobby with the boiler and room for appliances, as well as a bathroom featuring a grey three-piece suite and an electric shower over the bath.

Upstairs, the property offers two spacious double bedrooms with built-in storage, a roomy single bedroom, and a shower room, all accessible from the landing.

Outside, the property features an attractive front garden with metal railings and a driveway adorned with an original red phone box. The rear garden, accessible from both sides of the house, is a peaceful retreat with a lush lawn, mature shrubs, and trees, including a magnificent Horse Chestnut tree.

Situated in the heart of Holton, this property offers easy access to local amenities such as the primary school and village hall just a short two-minute walk away. For additional conveniences, the town of Halesworth is less than a mile away, while the breathtaking Heritage Coast with its charming destinations like Dunwich, Southwold, and Walberswick can be reached within a scenic 20-minute drive.
