THE LODGE...

ATTIK are delighted to offer this lovely Tingdene Harrington two double-bedroom luxury lodge with a spacious open plan living/dining/kitchen area, master with ensuite shower room and dressing room, family bathroom, and newly installed decking area, parking for two cars and most importantly, direct access to the sandy beach!

The Hollies, Kessingland is in a beautiful part of Suffolk and our clifftop park overlooks a wide, sandy beach. Located close to the seaside town of Lowestoft, we are also central to many local landmarks. For family fun, Africa Alive zoo is only just down the road and Pleasurewood Hills theme park is also nearby, between Great Yarmouth and Lowestoft.

There are plenty of things to do, as well as places to explore. The surrounding area hosts many outdoor sporting activities, including swimming, golf, ten-pin bowling, horse riding and roller skating. There are also many opportunities for relaxing nature walks, picturesque cycle rides and boating.

Great Yarmouth is host to twelve amusement arcades within two square miles. This fabled "Golden Mile" also attracts millions of visitors each year due to its sandy beaches, Sea Life Centre, the Pleasure Beach amusement park and much more. History fans will love visiting Dunwich, otherwise known as the lost city. Time Team visited this ancient village in 2011 and you too can explore its long heritage. From the heritage trails to the Dunwich Museum, there is plenty to see and do here. Southwold is also just a short drive away. Visit the Victorian pier, beach hut-lined promenade and the world famous Adnams Brewery. There are also tours of the lighthouse and, if you're visiting us between May and September, the Southwold Summer Theatre feature performances.
