LOCATION

Turner House is located prominently upon Market Street within Chorley Town Centre. The available office accommodation is situated above The Post Office, directly opposite Chapel Street. There are a number of amenities within walking distance of the property, including shops, cafes, bars and restaurants. Nearby occupiers include Lloyds TSB, Natwest Bank, Specsavers Opticians, Booths and Costa Coffee. In addition, there are a range of independent retailers and businesses within the immediate vicinity. Chorley Train Station is within a 5 minute walk with services direct into Manchester and the North, via Preston.

DESCRIPTION

Turner House comprises a substantial, detached former banking hall premises. The accommodation within is arranged over lower ground, ground, first and second floors. The ground floor is occupied predominantly by The Post Office.

The managed office accommodation is situated at both first and second floors (although the first floor has floor level access). Access to the office centre is gained at the rear of the property via a communal entrance.

Each floor is to be sub-divided to create super, self-contained office suites, each with their own front-door and windows to aid natural lighting. The proposed suites will range from approximately 104 sq ft to 311 sq ft, although subject to early commitment, bespoke offices can be created to suit larger requirements.

Each floor is to be sub-divided to create superb, self-contained office suites, each with their own "front-door" and large windows to aid natural lighting.

The proposed suites will range from approximately 104 sq ft to 311 sq ft and would suit 1-to-4-person sized businesses, although subject to early commitment from prospective tenants, bespoke offices can be created and tailored to suit larger occupier requirements (including a full floor at approx. 143.5 sq m (1,545 sq ft).

See attached proposed floorplans.

Car parking available at the rear (at additional cost).
