PROPERTY MISDESCRIPTIONS ACT 1991 - Although every care has been taken in the production of these sales particulars prospective purchasers should note: 1. All measurements are approximate. 2. Services to the property, appliances, fixtures and fittings included in the sale are believed to be in working order (though they have not been checked). 3. Prospective purchasers are advised to arrange their own tests and-or surveys before proceeding with a purchase. 4. The agents have not checked the deeds to verify the boundaries. Intending purchasers should satisfy themselves via their solicitors as to the actual boundaries on the property. None of the description whatsoever forms any part of the contract for this property and is not guaranteed in any way whatsoever to be correct. It cannot be assumed by omission that any planning permissions or building regulations have been obtained for this property. Also, any planning permissions/building regulations claimed to be correct are also not guaranteed.
