Sopley, Christchurch, BH23 7AY

This exquisite, period property has its original charm and character. Nestled in the picturesque village of Sopley, it is conveniently located between Ringwood and Christchurch, offering easy access to both coast and New Forest. Upon entering, you are welcomed by an airy entrance hall featuring a brick fireplace and elegant painted wooden floorboards that flow seamlessly throughout the ground floor. The open-plan kitchen/ dining room is tastefully designed with Shaker-style cabinetry, a butler's sink, built-in oven & electric hob, together with space for fridge/freezer & dishwasher. The dining area is particularly charming, featuring a striking island unit, a brick fireplace, and delightful double-aspect garden views. The well-appointed living room is a highlight, with its stunning inglenook fireplace housing a wood-burning stove, complete with seating on either side and the original bread oven adding a touch of history.

The stylish ground-floor family bathroom is fitted with high-quality sanitary ware, including a raised slipper bath with shower attachment. Moving to the first floor, the spacious master bedroom benefits from a small walk-in wardrobe and en-suite shower room with an oversized shower cubicle. Bedrooms two and three are both double with the second bedroom featuring a charming fireplace and built-in cupboard. The property's exterior is equally impressive. Accessed via a five-bar gate leading to a gravel parking area for several vehicles. The beautifully landscaped gardens surround the home, featuring sweeping lawns and a variety of shrubs, trees, & flowering plants. A summerhouse provides ideal space for an office or studio, while a decked area offers a sunny spot for relaxation. The property is freehold and accessed via a Right of Passage through the Sopley Farm Buildings private estate. Importantly there are no maintenance fees to pay to the estate.
