Set back from the road, this delightful two bedroom garden flat benefits from side access from Stratford Road and its own private entrance.

This spacious and elegant two-bedroom maisonette is situated in the highly sought-after area south of Kensington High Street. This charming property features its own private street entrance, providing a sense of exclusivity and convenience. The flat has been refurbished to a high standard and benefits from wood flooring throughout.

Oli & Liana are delighted to be instructed to help sell this exceptional opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented garden flat in one of London's most desirable neighbourhoods. Early viewing is highly recommended.
