Guide Price £650,000 to £700,000

Set within a striking Victorian building just a stone's throw from Ladbroke Grove Station, this beautifully laid-out two-bedroom apartment places you right in the heart of one of London's most iconic neighbourhoods.

Positioned on the first floor, the flat is cleverly designed to maximise light and space.

The open-plan reception and kitchen area, where soaring ceilings, intricate cornicing, and large sash windows lend volume and period character to the space. The room opens into a conservatory-style space that frames the generous east-facing terrace, a perfect spot for slow mornings with the sun rising over the rooftops.
