GUIDE PRICE: £650,000 to £700,000

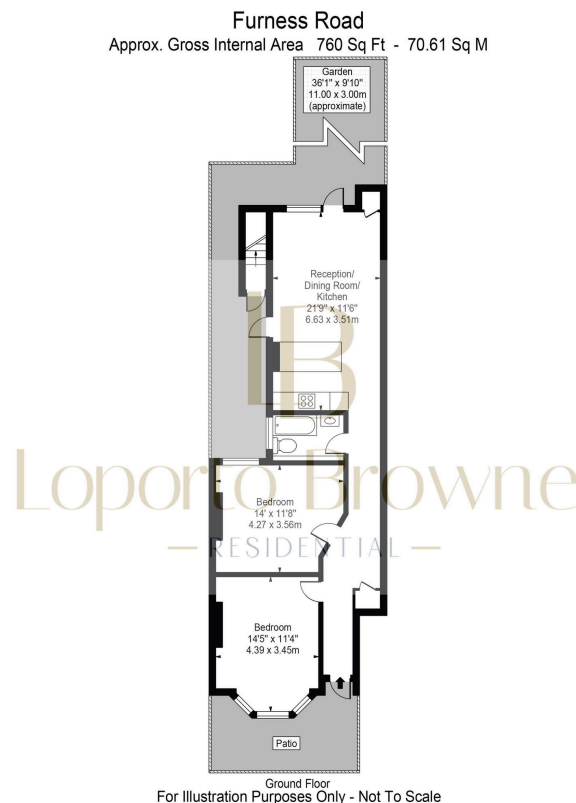

This beautifully renovated two-bedroom ground floor maisonette sits on the quiet end of Furness Road, a popular tree-lined street in Kensal Green. Recently refurbished to an exceptionally high standard, the property offers nearly 800 sq ft of stylish living space, combining modern comfort with period character.

The home has its own private entrance and opens into a wide hallway with clever under-stairs storage. Both double bedrooms are generous in size, naturally bright, and retain elegant period features including original fireplaces and high ceilings. A contemporary bathroom sits neatly between the second bedroom and the main living space.
