Description

An opportunity has presented itself to acquire a self catering holiday let within the heart of this historic town, The Old Post Office has been finished to an incredibly high standard throughout. Catering for eight people over three floors and with four sizeable bedrooms and following a fundamental renovation prior to opening in May 2021, it has received high accolades in the two years it's been trading. Grade II listed, it retains many period and historical features which adds to the charm. Fully fitted with everything one needs for a weekend or week away, this holiday let is a fabulous opportunity for an incoming buyer to retain the current model and continue trading straight away, being 'turn key' it makes a sensible investment.

Internal Details

End of terrace, this symmetrical Grade II listed property is incredibly attractive, built mostly of red brick it stands proud on the corner of this market square. Retaining many period features, but brought up to modern building standards with a new roof and fully insulated walls, this former Post Office has large bay windows to the ground floor, flooding the open plan living arrangement with light, sash windows adorn the front elevation adding further historical significance. Entering the property into the open plan living space, thoroughly thought out with dining area, sitting area and a fabulous kitchen. The kitchen, fitted with high end appliances, includes a generous island/ breakfast bar with solid oak worktop. The sitting area is comfy with a wood burning stove giving it a cosy feel, further on this floor is a cloakroom and utility with access to a rear courtyard garden.

Designed with eco living in mind the house has been fully rewired and has a state of the art air source heat pump which can be controlled remotely via an app. This system also attracts a RHI payment paid quarterly to the property owner until May 2028.

Letting Accommodation

Rising to the first floor, an original wood staircase leads the way, two bedrooms occupy this floor, one being the 'Blue Room', a full-length room it is incredibly spacious with seating area and working wood burning stove to one end. Further on this floor is a bathroom, a modern suite with large walk-in shower.

The second floor provides a further two bedrooms with views across the square and countryside beyond, attractive rooms, they retain original bedroom doors showing the room numbers from when it was believed to have been a Georgian lodging house. Further on this floor is another sizeable bath/shower room with modern suite, roll top bath and shower.

Fixtures & Fittings

All fixtures and fittings are owned outright and will be included within the sale. The Vendor will remove any personal items within the property prior to a sale.
