External Details

The hotel sits within Kirkbride Airfield and has direct access from the runway allowing pilots to taxi to the hotel once landed and park immediately out the front. There is space for numerous aircraft and vehicles.

The hotel has a private garden accessible from the bar area and has a large building plot included with full planning passed for a five bedroom bungalow.

Owner's Accommodation

The owners currently use two bedrooms of the hotel as their living accommodation. The bedrooms offers large en suite, accessible from both bedrooms.

The Opportunity

A unique opportunity to acquire what is believed to be the only hotel that you can taxi your plane up to, park overnight and fly away after breakfast.

The business trades well but offers much scope to increase revenue as the current owners only operate the bar, restaurant and conference facilities two days a week.

The rooms are available for all flights as required however this gives significant opportunity to increase revenue.

The building plot could also generate revenue depending upon whether a property is developed or if the land is used for camping pods or caravans.

The current owners are retiring from the business to pursue new opportunities although vendor finance is available.

Business Rates

Confirmation of business rates payable should be obtained from the local authority.
