Description

The Manor is Georgian era property latter additions that has been the subject of a considerable amount of investment undertaken by the current owners since coming into their ownership in 2015. The property comes with the added benefit of NOT being listed. The property has historically been linked to the adjoining inn, however now trades separately as a popular B&B.

In the nine years our clients have owned the business, they have invested and grown the trade ensuring established repeat customers throughout the year that new owners can build upon. The peaceful countryside location is an attraction to weekend visitors and holiday makers seeking staycations and a base to explore the Exmoor National Park.

Location

The business is set well back off a winding countryside lane in attractive grounds in an elevated position affording stunning views above the village of Barbrook, on the edge of Exmoor National Park and within easy reach from the popular North Devon coastal resorts of Lynton and Lynmouth, making it an ideal base for holiday makers to explore both countryside and coast.

---
