Description

The Free of Tie leasehold public house which our clients purchased in 2013, after which they carried out a complete refurbishment. These works were sympathetic and in keeping with the original character of the building in order to recreate the ambience of a traditional pub in the heart of the community.

In 2016 our clients created the Old Brewery Urban Function Venue with a view to hosting weddings, private parties, barbeques and in addition created The Potting Shed for smaller gatherings.

Location

Westbury is a small market town situated at the western edge of Wiltshire beside the chalk downlands that form Salisbury Plain. The variety of the surrounding countryside, from the Downs to the broad vale of the White Horse attract both walkers and cyclists all year round and only six miles from Longleat Safari and Centre Parcs.

Westbury is exceptionally well positioned for major road and railway connections with the mainline railway station offering links to London, Wales and the whole of the South West of England. The most famous landmark of the area is the vastly impressive Westbury White Horse which is both the oldest and largest White Horse in Wiltshire.

Within Westbury, the Market Place is a charming old square formed by some of the oldest buildings in the town, such as the 14th Century All Saints Church with the third heaviest peal of eight bells in the world and an Erasmus Bible. Walk on through to Church Street to find one of the oldest operational swimming baths in the country.

External Details

Car parking for approximately 25/30 vehicles with adjoining beer garden laid to lawn which gently slopes down to an attractive small stream and tree lined boundary. Picnic bench seating for around (50) persons. There is a children's play area at the front of the car park next to the detached single storey brick built building containing the skittle alley which doubles as a function and cinema space with overhead projector and large screen used regularly by the active retirement club with toilet facilities.

Trading Information

The Opportunity

Our clients have owned the pub since 2013 and has established a reputation as the go to pub in the local area and therefore has a reliable year round customer base ranging from cycle and walking groups to the three skittle and one crib team the pub hosts.

The pub also picks up trade from custom visiting Longleat and visits to nearby Bath. During the week the pub has lunchtime business from clientele from the local trading estates as well as candidates attending the army officer selection board based in Westbury.

This is opportunity to purchase an established businesses that has a solid local customer base as well as scope to develop and grow the trade by considering converting the skittle alley into rooms and introducing breakfast and coffee & Cake to the cyclists and walking groups throughout the day.
