The current owner has done a fantastic job with the renovation of the building, restoring its traditional form with original beams, open log fire and stone flagged floors. The White Lion Inn was vacant prior to the current owner taking over just short of 10 years ago and has created a fantastic experience for all their customers, down to its impeccable views/rooms and its fine dining which boasts 4.9 ratings out of 5.

Location

The White Lion Inn is nestled beneath Buckden Pike in splendid Upper Wharfedale, the heart of the beautiful Yorkshire Dales National Park.

Cray is a hamlet on the B6160 located above Buckden. The area is extremely popular with walkers and tourists with the famous Cray Waterfalls within view of the property. Grassington, Aysgarth Falls and Richmond Castle are all close by, as are the thriving market towns of Skipton, Hawes and Leyburn.

The Opportunity

An extremely well established business which is a unique chance for either an experienced operator to add to their portfolio, or a buyer who is looking to relocate for a lifestyle change.

This is a fabulous turnkey business opportunity which benefits from a well established and highly regarded reputation throughout the area, with potential to grow and take further.

Our client has decided to sell to move on to pastures new and is relocating.
