Before the business was a restaurant, it traded as a pub called the Golf Inn, both attracted tourist and local trade.

Location

The property is situated on Park Avenue, just off the High Street in the Scottish coastal town of Carnoustie.

Carnoustie is famous for its links Golf Course hosting the British Open Golf Championship in 2018, generating a massive economic injection to the town and local region. In the local area there is a mix of residential, retail and commercial properties in the vicinity.

Dundee is located 14 miles to the west of the town and Arbroath is seven miles to the north east, along the North Sea coast. Carnoustie also benefits from its own train station with regular services provided north and south.

Internal Details

The property consists of a ground floor bar, restaurant area and kitchen. Male, female and disabled toilets are located to the rear of the restaurant and bar, as well as a sizeable cellar.

The Opportunity

The business was well known within the community and used by the locals and visitors to the town.

The property previously traded as a successful restaurant and tapas bar, however, we are confident that the site has the potential to cater for many concepts going forward.

Gross internal area of around 2,300sq.ft and could therefore be developed for other use.

Fixtures & Fittings

The property is being sold with vacant possession. There is currently a fully fitted kitchen that can be sold by separate negotiation.
