A fantastic opportunity to acquire this wellestablished newsagent and Post Office conveniently situated on a busy main road in the densely populated area of Buttershaw. Run by a husband and wife team who are seeking to retire, the business is fitted to a high standard throughout and further benefits from a well presented one bedroom apartment above.

The Opportunity

Our clients have successfully operated the Post Office and Newsagent for the past 33 years. They have now taken the decision to retire, offering this excellent opportunity for a new owner to take on and add value. The business plays a key part in supporting the local residents in the nearby area.

The Post Office is popular with local business banking, and parcel deliveries due to the convenient location and unrestricted street parking.

There is scope to develop the business further offering more key convenience lines.

Owner's Accommodation

The residential accommodation is internally accessed through the storeroom area at the rear of the premises. The first floor flat comprises; one bedroom, bathroom, open plan kitchen, and living room which appear to be in good condition.

Location

Bradford is a city in the northern English county of West Yorkshire. The Property is situated in the residential area of Buttershaw four miles southwest of Bradford city centre. The Property has direct access onto Halifax Road (A6036) which is the main arterial route connecting to Bradford in the north and the town of Halifax to the south.

The prominent position on Halifax Road allows the business to attract both traveling commuters and local residents. The shop benefits from the nearby Tesco superstore.

Internal Details

The entrance leads into an open trading area with the news agents till located to the right-hand side. The Post office kiosk is located to the far rear wall with sales counter and tills.
