With our new homes so close to the city centre you really are spoilt for choice. Within a short 10 minute drive you can reach the The Bridges Shopping Centre which is host to an abundance of big-name brands making it perfect for a spot of retail therapy.

There is also the option to take in a show at The Sunderland Empire Theatre with musicals and tribute bands, or enjoy the drama on the football pitch at the Stadium of Light. Situated in the heart of the city, Mowbray Park is a great place to spend the day featuring Sunderland Museum which showcases four floors of exciting galleries and exhibitions and the Winter Garden featuring an indoor tropical attraction with treetop walkway.

Alternatively, a short 15 minute drive will lead you to international gold standard beaches along the picturesque North East coast at Roker and Seaburn, both featuring popular coastal cafés and restaurants to indulge. The attraction of the coast is not just felt in the summer, with Sunderland Illuminations lighting up the seafront throughout the winter evenings allowing you to enjoy enchanted coastal walks.

You can also make the most of the outdoors at the New Herrington Recreational Park, just a 10 minute drive from our new homes, which includes a play area, café and sports grounds as well as providing miles of stunning country walk and cycle trails. A stroll up to the top of the striking Penshaw Monument also allows you to take in the impressive views of the area.

With convenient access to major road links and transport services, Chester Gate also acts as a convenient gateway for commuting to or exploring both Durham and Newcastle.
