Boasting a fantastic central village location, this former public house enjoys six / seven bedrooms alongside generous living accommodation, plus two large, attached outbuildings.

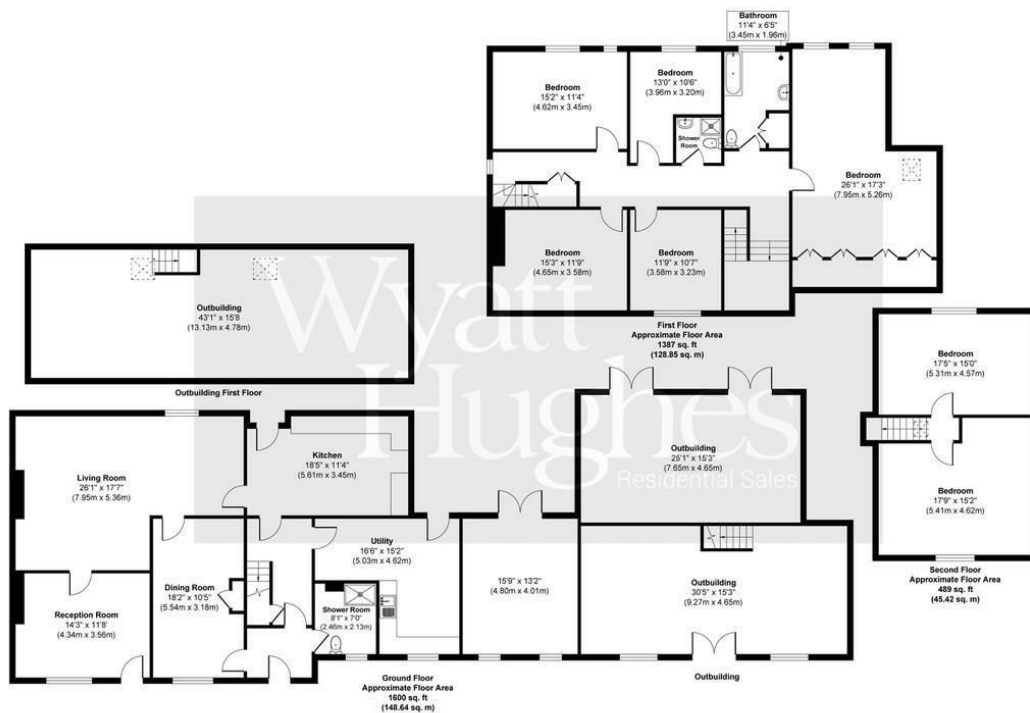

Accessed from the rear garden, the main porch-covered doorway leads into a spacious kitchen/breakfast room. Enjoying pleasant views across the garden, it also hosts an array of units/worktops, with room for undercounter appliances. From here, two doorways offer access into either the inner hallway or the drawing room. Off the hall, you'll find a generous-sized utility room, with all necessary plumbing, and a separate downstairs shower room with WC. A large drawing room, in a L-shaped configuration, features intricate period detailing, which is complemented by a large wood-burning stove. The drawing room also offers access into a family room and wood-panelled dining room.

On the first floor, you'll discover a spacious landing. The master suite is a fabulous space, spanning the full depth of the property, featuring built-in wardrobes. Meanwhile, three further well-proportioned bedrooms can also be found. For added convenience, a family bathroom is complemented by an adjacent shower room, which includes a modern white suite. A study area also acts as an occasional bedroom if needed. Meanwhile on the second floor, you'll find two further double bedrooms. Externally, the home offers a plethora of delights, from the generous parking area for up to 8 vehicles and the sunny south-west-facing private garden offering views of the neighbouring church to the vast attached outbuildings, plus garden store. The property even benefits from a cellar.

With immediate access to the A21, the property is well placed to enjoy a range of amenities in the local area, including the village store, primary school, award-winning farm shop and mainline station situated under 2 miles away.
