Cecilia Road, E8

On the raised ground floor you will find the reception room and kitchen with high ceilings, feature fireplaces and its original ornate cornicing

Across the top two floors are three double bedrooms and utility room. The lower ground floor consists of another two double bedrooms, storage, shower and W/C. There is a separate entrance offering the opportunity to create a self-contained studio and the access to the large West Facing garden is on this level.

The home offers great renovation potential in a very sought after E8 location.
