Millfields Road, E5

A three bedroom Victorian terrace situated in a prime Lower Clapton location with a garden and basement. The house retains many of its original features, double glazed windows, double reception room, kitchen and two bathrooms. There is potential to extend into the loft, subject to planning.

The ground floor consists of a double reception room with feature fire places and bay window. The kitchen with space to dine is to the rear of the house with skylight and access to the garden. There is also access to the basement and a bathroom with shower.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms and family bathroom with separate W/C.

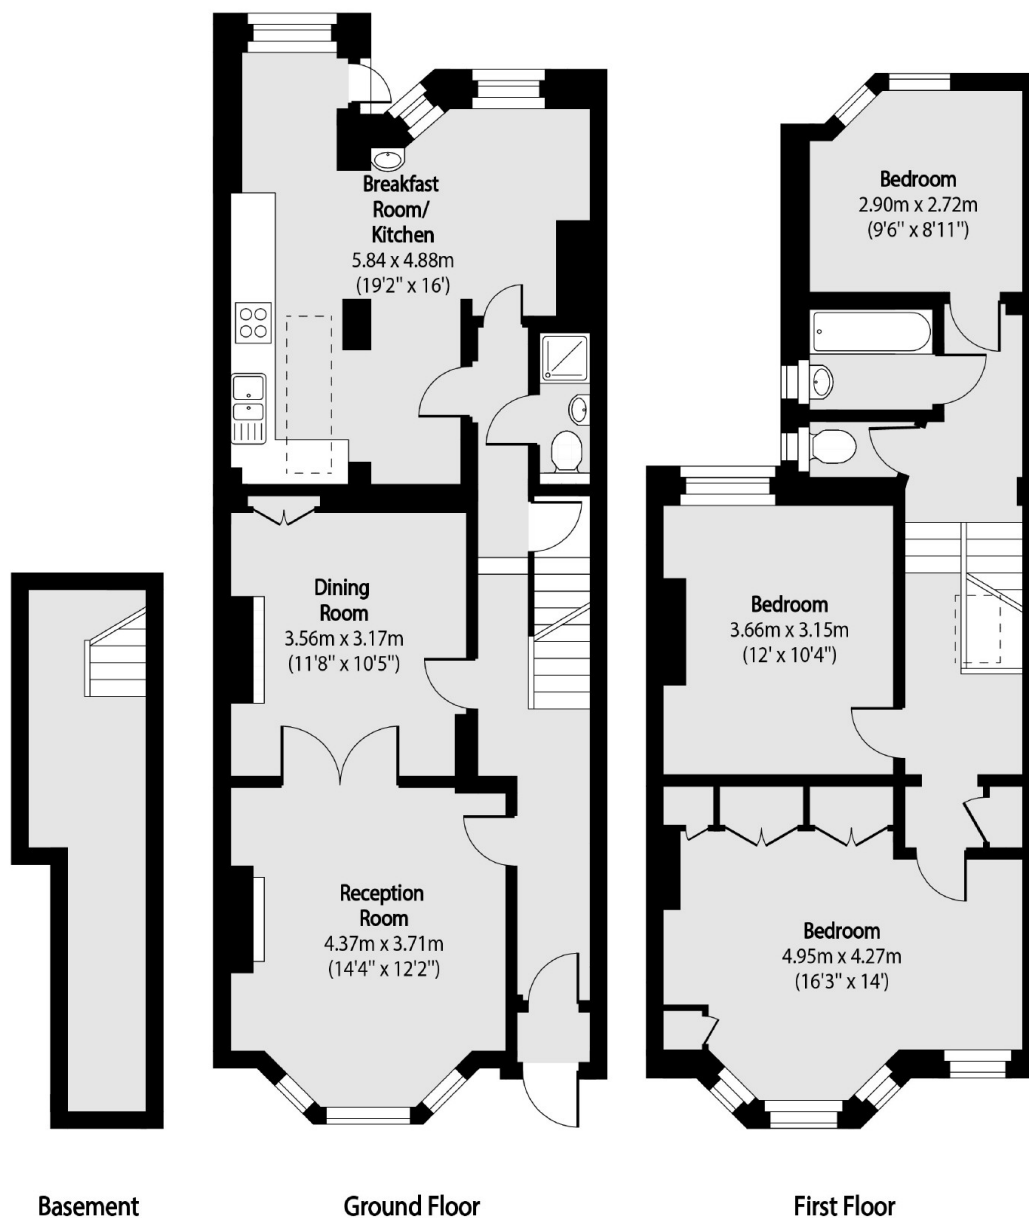

The home is half a mile from Millfields Park and the Hackney Marshes offering many opportunities for outdoor recreation. The home is situated in the catchment area of many Outstanding schools and is within walking distance to the independent shops, cafés, Sunday Market of Chatsworth Road and Lower Clapton Road. Clapton and Homerton Overground stations are under one mile away giving you excellent transport links.
