Location

Barton St David is a traditional Somerset village with local amenities including Church, Public House, village hall and playing field consisting a cricket pitch, children's park and tennis court. More comprehensive facilities can be found in the neighbouring villages of Keinton Mandeville and Butleigh, both of which have primary schools and post office/stores. Further amenities can be found in Somerton, approximately 5 miles west and the renowned Millfield Senior School on the outskirts of Street is 5 miles north. The historic town of Glastonbury and the Cathedral City of Wells are also nearby. For the commuter Castle Cary mainline station (London Paddington) is 7 miles east, as is A303 at Podimore.

Insight

This beautiful natural stone cottage is situated on the village fringe of Barton St. David. Formerly a three bed, the current owners have renovated the property and thoughtfully adapted the accommodation to provide a more practical family layout. This cottage is full of charming character including flagstone floors, wooden beams, Blue Lias exposed feature walls and benefits from countryside views to the rear. Accommodation comprises, entrance hall and WC, living room with wood burning stove, study/ hobby room, kitchen/breakfast room and dining room. There are four bedrooms in total, a family bathroom and an ensuite shower room services the master bedroom. A courtyard style garden to the rear and lawn to the front, together with ample driveway and garage parking.

Accommodation...

As you step inside, there is a spacious entrance hall with ample space for coats and shoes and a convenient WC. The living room exudes traditional cottage character with dual windows to the front, open staircase rising to the first floor accommodation and exposed stone fireplace with inset wood burning stove. Leading off of this reception is not only the kitchen and dining room but a large study/ hobby room with access to the rear patio. The dining room was once the kitchen and now provides the ideal space for a family or entertaining. Also with patio doors to the rear the room further opens out to a spacious kitchen/breakfast room with walk in pantry and rear porch. Upstairs, you'll find four bedrooms with an ensuite shower room to the master and a family bathroom featuring a freestanding roll top bath and separate shower unit with some rooms benefiting from far reaching countryside views.

To the front of the property, a gravelled driveway provides ample off road parking and access to an attached garage. The front garden has been laid to lawn with a cock and hen stone wall boundary. To the rear you will find a modernised cottage courtyard, fully paved and enclosed with stone walling and hedging making this a low maintenance, ideal space for relaxing or entertaining.
