Location

Castle Cary is one of Somerset's prettiest market towns, surrounded by unspoilt countryside and known for its honey-coloured stone buildings and traditional character. The town offers a good range of independent shops, cafés and everyday amenities, with The Newt in Somerset nearby providing stunning gardens, walks, restaurants and a hotel & spa.

Well connected, Castle Cary has a mainline railway station with direct services to London Paddington and easy access to the A303. Families benefit from excellent schooling, with Ansford Academy in the town and leading independent schools such as Millfield, Sherborne, Bruton and Wells Cathedral School within easy reach.

Insight

An extended three-bedroom end of terrace home, occupying a desirable corner plot position within a popular residential estate on the fringes of Castle Cary. The property has been thoughtfully adapted to provide versatile living accommodation. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, a spacious open-plan living and dining room, and two additional reception rooms – one currently used as a hobby room with patio doors opening to the rear garden, and the other as a study, perfect for home working. A fitted kitchen, utility room and downstairs WC complete the ground floor layout. Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a family bathroom.

Externally, the front garden has been gravelled for ease of maintenance with a variety of shrubs and is accessed via a shared gate and pathway leading to the front door and side gate. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with a paved patio area, offering excellent privacy and space for outdoor entertaining. A short walk from the property to the rear is a detached double garage, with up-and-over door providing secure parking or storage.
