Flat 401 Wimhurst Court, 168 Upper North Street,
£2,250 pcm

A stunning dual-aspect apartment boasting wonderful views of the Limehouse Cut and Canary Wharf in Phoenix Works - a modern, canal-side development.

The property is situated on the fourth floor of the development (with lift access) and comprises a large open-plan kitchen and living area with access to a private balcony, two double bedrooms with large windows to enjoy the views from (one with a Jack and Jill en-suite), a family bathroom and a spacious hallway with two storage cupboards, one of which houses a washing machine and separate tumble dryer. The current owners have also created a pantry near the kitchen accessible via a sliding door.

Phoenix Works benefits from lovely, well maintained communal gardens and an array of local amenities including coffee shops such as the Popular
