This stunning new residential development comprising 110 luxury specification apartments, is situated in the heart of the famous Baltic Triangle. The development features studio apartments as well as 1 bedroom and 2 bedroom units. Floor-to-ceiling windows offer views over the River Mersey and iconic landmarks such as the Anglican Cathedral are also on the doorstep. Across the road is the highly admired Baltic Market in the old Cains Brewery, featuring artisan food and drink from all over the world with up to 100,000 visitors in one weekend. For a spot of high street shopping, a hive of activity, Liverpool's Baltic Triangle is an area continually on the rise. It is one of Liverpool's fastest growing districts and has been named the hippest area in the UK by Travel Supermarket, as well as the coolest place to live in Britain by The Times. Location the Baltic Triangle Once the well-worn factory and workshop of the city back in the 1800's, it is now a thriving and cutting-edge destination that is at the heart of the independent Liverpool scene. The Baltic Triangle occupies a pivotal and central location - positioned between a number of the city's most strategic regeneration investments. The area is within close proximity to the Knowledge Quarter Mayoral Development Zone and the Liverpool City Enterprise Zone, which between them have over ?3 billion of schemes either on site or due to commence in the coming years. It also sits immediately next to parts of Liverpool's World Heritage Site and straddles the World Heritage Site Buffer Zone along its southern edge. As a result of the areas proximity to the city centre and its new popularity - fuelled by a blossoming creative and digital sector, it has attracted significant levels of development.
