Location

The site is located in the popular village of Howe Green, Great Hallingbury, Essex. Although rural, the village has excellent transport links being located only a 5 minute drive from Bishop's Stortford town centre which is a popular market town, with main line train station providing links to London and Cambridge in 40 minutes. The M11 is approximately 5 minutes drive and Stansted Airport is a further 3 mile drive.

The village is very popular due to its proximity within 1 mile of Hatfield Forest, National Trust Park. Surrounding occupants include residential properties, equestrian users and Howe Green private primary school.

Description

The site provides 9.18 acres and comprises mixed woodland (approx. 40%) and grassland. The site contains 2 partly constructed buildings in association with the approved use of the site as a cemetery. The West side of the site benefits from close boarded timber fencing. The Northern and Eastern boundaries have mature woodland.
