Dalesview is located in the picturesque village of Clint, Nidderdale, North Yorkshire. Benefitting from a stunning position on the fringe of open countryside, this idyllic destination is conveniently close to the delightful Burnt Yates, Birstwith, and Ripley. Clint is easily accessed via major roadways and is only a short drive away from Harrogate, a Victorian spa town and rural district that contains the medieval city of Ripon, a designated area of outstanding natural beauty and four charming but very different market towns; Boroughbridge, Knaresborough, Masham and Pateley Bridge.

Dalesview is a bespoke selection of only 8 new high-quality properties, comprising 3, 4, and 5 bedroom homes designed to provide the ultimate living experience. Encompassing Rouse Homes's superb specification, Dalesview is a testament to Rouse Homes's exceptional standards and quality.

The development is conveniently placed, being located just a mile away from the 'Outstanding' Ofsted-rated Hampsthwaite Church of England Primary School with an array of facilities within Clint and the surrounding area, and having access to major transport links.

DIRECTIONS: Proceed out of Harrogate towards Ripley and follow the road towards Pateley Bridge on the B6265. Proceed up Bedlam Bank and towards Burnt Yates. At the crossroads turn left onto Clint Bank where Dalesview is found on your left hand side.
