PERIOD GROUND FLOOR APARTMENT...

This spacious ground-floor apartment showcases a stunning blend of original period features and modern updates, offering a unique and characterful living space with a flexible service charge. The property retains its charm with intricate cornices, frescoes, ceiling roses, Minton tiled and original wooden flooring, and beautiful stained-glass windows. Complementing these features is a newly fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, partially UPVC double-glazing, a modern bathroom, and full fibre internet availability, ensuring comfort and convenience. Located in the conservation area of Mapperley Park, the apartment is close to local amenities and provides easy access to the City Centre, City Hospital, Universities, and excellent commuting links. The accommodation includes an entrance hall, a stylish fitted kitchen open plan to a bright and inviting living room, a substantial master bedroom with ample space, an additional bedroom, and a contemporary bathroom suite. Adding to its appeal, the property includes an allocated off-road parking space with direct access to the apartment, allowing you to enter conveniently from the car park without needing to use the main entrance.
