WHEELCHAIR-FRIENDLY DETACHED BUNGALOW...

This well-presented three-bedroom detached bungalow offers deceptively spacious accommodation and is fully wheelchair accessible throughout, both internally and externally. The property is situated in a sought-after location within easy reach of local shops, excellent schools, and fantastic transport links, making it a perfect purchase for a wide range of buyers looking for convenience, comfort, and accessibility. Internally, the accommodation comprises an entrance hall providing access to the integral garage, which is currently also utilised as a utility room, and a kitchen diner fitted with a wheelchair-accessible oven and ample storage. The generously sized reception room features double French doors opening out to the rear garden, creating a bright and airy living space. The property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a master bedroom serviced by a fully accessible wet room with grab handles, alongside a separate three-piece bathroom, also equipped with grab rails for added support. Externally, the front of the property benefits from a driveway providing off-street parking for two vehicles and a paved patio-style garden. To the rear, you'll find a private block-paved garden, a versatile outbuilding with lighting, power, and ramp access, as well as an elevated paved terrace with a pergola, spiral staircase, and a wheelchair lift for full accessibility. Further benefits include owned solar panels, an electric boiler, and heating powered by solar energy, resulting in minimal energy costs and excellent efficiency. This property is a versatile home that must be viewed to fully appreciate the space, accessibility, and quality on offer.
